A Greeting from the President of the Church

JAMES E. WAGNER

ONSIDERABLY more than a third of the pages in this book are occupied by statistical tables.

Most of the remainder is devoted to simple factual data such as the names and addresses of ministers and widows of ministers, location of churches by states and by synods, figures and more figures, names and more names.

It could be argued that the Year Book is as bare of inspiration as is the dictionary or the phone book, although it may be recalled that Christopher Morley once began a little poem by declaring that

"No Malory of old romance, No Crusoe tale, it seems to me, Can equal in rich circumstance This telephone directory,"

It all depends on the way you look at it.

And that's just how it is with the Year Book.

The Year Book is black-and-white witness to the truth that the hub and center of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is your church out there in city, town, or countryside. In the public press and in interdenominational publications you may read that in 1958 the Evangelical and Reformed Church had a total of 2,742 congregations, 807,280 communicant members; and that they gave a total of $686,050.16 for World Service and $4,511,545.09 for the missions and benevolence Apportionment.

Those are statistics of totals.

What the Year Book testifies is that those totals wouldn't exist if it were not for your church and each of our other 2,741 churches, the number of members each had, and the contributions each church gave to help make up the totals which are all the public press is concerned about.

Your church is on record in the Year Book.

Indeed, in the columns under the general heading of "Membership and Growth" you have specific evidence that you have been counted

In sum, what the Year Book says is that you count.

Dr. Wagner

And that testimony of the Year Book gets pretty close to the testimony of the Gospel. Almost on the eve of World War II Dr. Halford E. Luccock published a little book entitled "Christianity and the Individual in a World of Crowds." In it he wrote: "We are increasingly set in a world of crowds. Totals, aggregates, masses—these count more and more. . . Let us remember that the individual is set inextricably in the very center of the Christian gospel. . . All through the Gospels there is stressed the worth of the least person. Any gospel which slurs that over is, emphatically, a new gospel."

That you count is the thrilling implication of the first verses of the 45th chapter of Isaiah: "Thus says the Lord. . . . I will go before you . . . that you may know that it is I, the Lord, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name." The parable of the good shepherd (St. John 10:1-18) tells us that ". . . the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name."

The Year Book is designed to serve a great many useful purposes. Its statistical tables prevent us from guessing about our membership and our giving; they enable us to make an accurate comparison, at least on these points, between what we are today and what we were a year ago, fifteen years ago, or longer.

But the most important thing the Year Book says is this:

You count! You matter!

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

EREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarters addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This information has been secured from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Board and institutions listed.

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in state laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the board, institution or agency to be remembered.

The corporate titles of our Church boards, agencies and institutions may be found on pages 30-31 of this Year Book.

Names and Stations of Missionaries

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in the areas where we are established. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the willing cooperation on the part of the executives and other representatives of the Board of International Missions in presenting this complete personnel.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as those of the appointees have again been included. They are worthy of close study on the part of everyone. The names in italics after the post offices of the addresses of lay ministers represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From December 24, 1957 to December 31, 1958

God be praised for raising up among us faithful ministers of Jesus Christ. None among us can calculate their labors as ordained servants of Christ and His Church. Now those of our brethren who have laid down their work and have received the eternal promise see no longer "as through a glass, darkly." Their joy is made full in the very presence of God. We rejoice with them in the blessed assurance that the love of God binds us all together in the Household of Faith.

Let it be our constant prayer that God will lay His claim upon the lives of many who will enter into the Christian ministry and find in it the wealth which is beyond counting and the life which conquers death.

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the detailed location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any error immediately to The Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, D.D., LL.D., Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

1958 STATISTICS OF CONGREGATIONS

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1958, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

These congregational statistics went to press in March. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents.

A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code for the first column: A indicate cities in Standard Metropolitan Areas; B indicates cities NOT in a Standard Metropolitan Area; 1—population over 50,000; 2—from 25,000 to 50,000; 3—from 10,000 to 25,000; 4—from 5,000 to 10,000; 5—from 2,500 to 5,000; 6—from 1,000 to 2,500; 7—under 1,000; 8—open country area.

Standard Metropolitan Areas

In the light of the increased urbanization of the population of the United States and its effect upon the United Church of Christ, the following list of the 170 Standard Metropolitan Areas, as defined by the U. S. Bureau of Census, is included in the 1958 Year Book. Those which are starred (*) contain Evangelical and Reformed congregations.

In order that the sociological data—occupation, age, race, etc.—reported by the census concerning these areas may be related to the church, it is proposed that in subsequent annual congregational reports, churches report their location by counties making up the Standard Metropolitan Areas, as listed below.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE

In January, 1959, the Fund will celebrate the 200th anniversary of its charter. Organized in 1717, it received this charter from the sons of William Penn. The Fund still operates under this document.

But the Fund is 241 years young! It believes "the best is yet to be." Durability has come through expendability. It has given its best to minister to the minister. Its unique position in the heart of the clergy of America has become a tradition.

Join the Fund family and enjoy its rare privileges.

The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company of Burlington, lowa, has, for sixty-nine years, served the congregations, institutions, pastors and members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. During these years has saved its policyholders many dollars in insurance premiums. The company has at all times paid its losses promptly and to the satisfaction of its policyholders. All policies are non-assessable.

The company invests all surplus earnings in government and municipal bonds and other approved investments for the protection of its policyholders. All amounts over and above our retention are reinsured with other reliable companies, this also provides additional protection for both the company and its policyholders.

The merger between the Congregational Christian Church and the Evangelical and Reformed Church has brought about a larger field for our company to serve. We invite the Congregational Christian Churches, institutions, pastors and members to avail themselves of our liberal rates and protection. We especially invite the pastors to give us an opportunity to let us tell them about the rates and policy we have for the pastors.

All inquiries will be cheerfully answered when writing to the secretary, J. Milton Rasche.
